Rosalee Grable aka The Webfairy

Status: ASSOCIATE

Networks: 911InsideJobbers(defunct), DOG4TREE,
911movement.org(defunct), Webfairy

Group Contacts: Craig Lazo, Jennifer Wynhausen

Rosalee Grable was recused from a insane asylum by libertarian gadfly Fred Smart because libertarians almost always go insane , so why not get ahead of the game and start out with a warm body that's not sane to begin with. She's a long associate of Craig Lazo, hosting his Killtown material on her servers to this day.

Early days on the Web: Chaos.net

JREF LINKS THE LOVE

JREF is awesome

Just Some Stuff!

I've been really busy lately trying to come up with a format for thechaos.net that I can be "somewhat" pleased with. The images aren't exactly what I had in mind and most everything will probably go over drastic changes. The CGI stuff "free thechaos homepages" will be up and running shortly to anyone that wants one. Space will be limited for the time being though so be pro-active. I've basically decided to just have the script designed for advanced html editors out there...(for the time being.)

Chaos

I like stuff. My minds total anarchy right now. Works been keeping me busy; and anything else a person can think of.

About this blog

Resource and warning about the ongoing scam known as the Portland 9/11 Truth Alliance.

For years this group has fleeced activists in the Portland, Oregon area for cash and labor, under false pretenses. They have connections to racists, cultists and police informers. When things go bad for them, they go quiet for a few months, then start up with a new batch of dupes. Disloyalty is punished with fairgame style bullying tactics. Click here for more on how the group operates.

Contacting anyone in the group for rational dialog is impossible so don't bother. Their lawyer will ignore you or spread lies and encourage followers to do the same. Herein is information anyone needs to check against their ever changing "stories".

PORTLAND, OR is only one chapter of the 911 Truth Alliance. There were chapters all over the USA. Some were dissolved, others renamed to (insert location)for911TRUTH. The same cultlike bullshit is going on in all of them.

People profiled are members or associates who:

- endorse the group and support it financially,
- recruit members knowing it's a con,
- protect and defend the con artists
- spread lies
- trade in confidential information
- engage in harassment
- and/or encourage others to do any or all of the above.

The Portland 911 truth Alliance (and collective fronts) will, like most cults, blame the usual list of suspects, never stopping to think if they hadn't conned anyone in the first place no one would give a shit.

To dispute the information herein or make a hypocritical demand for its removal, try sending an email to:

tottellthetruth85@yahoo.com

All concerns will be treated with the same prompt attention the Portland 911 Truth Alliance has demonstrated in the face of past complaints.

911 InsideJobbers

Retarded name for a retarded Yahoo group list serve supposedly run by Grable.

From description:

Description

Inside Jobbers is an ad hoc think tank stemming from 9/11 research and activism.

In the absence of any investigative journalism and any real remaining "independent" media sources, this group is the premiere source for analysis of current events; specializing in 9/11, false flag terrorism, psy-ops, and geo-political NWO policy watch.

Our goal is the exposure of the monumental crime of 9/11 as a military operation and media hoax, with hope of ending any further aggression under the guise of the frame-up on humanity - aka "the War on Terror"

(NOTE:

This "exile"-group formerly existed for advanced former members of '911TruthAction' to reconvene 'should anything happen to our original group'.

The former description included:

"...Its original purpose was to develop clear opposition projects to both democratic and republican party, gatekeepers, fake anti-war organizers, fascism and the cover-up of US' orchestration of Sep11th attacks.

PS:

This exile list was once 'established' by Jolly Rogers, who decided to become a 'planehugger' and censored those, who didn't follow his thoughts. The list was created on July 3, 2005, and moved a few banned members of 911 Truth Action into it. This list was then immediately renamed into "9/11 InsideJobbers".)

Their archives were private, but message history as of Dec 2006 showed it was quite the spammoramma:

What the fuck can anyone be doing to have a listserve sending over 1000 emails a month? Amway? Nigerian scams? However by June 2007, someone, probably Grable, made the decision to make the archives public:

They were spamming their little conspiracy hearts out, then stopped cold in 2008.

This was the cause of much drama and butthurt:

Fw: Planehuggers Hacked

Yahoo shows its true colors yet again!

the group 911insidejobbers has apparently been deleted. It has contained a treasure trove of 911 research showing the US government to be complicit in 9/11.

Now it's gone!

this is kinda similar to how Yahoo deleted about 60 images from this newsgroup. (The images confirmed Indymedia censorship of this blog.)

Folks, wake up! Yahoo is run by the government. The people who work there are working for a coup. They are being paid to bring about Fascism (or Maoism or some kind of Communism) to the US. Their dream is to deny freedom of speech to every opponent of the regime in Washington, DC.

if they'll take 911insidejobbers down they can certainly take this newsgroup down.

Damn those Fascist, rat bastards at Yahoo!

My Yahoo ID was stolen, other email addresses added to my account, Planehuggers was set to Moderator Posting only, and it looks like 911insidejobbers was deleted.

From another conspiracy listserve:

I had some faith in you after all this time as owner.

The right thing to do would be to upgrade yourself and make us owners again. thank!

My account was hacked.
Someone stole my password and created all sorts of havoc.
I went there today and downgraded myself to member.
Any other changes were made by an imposter who logged into my yahoo account, changed my password, and tried to delete webfairy@... and webfairy@... emails from that account to make the takeover complete.
911insidejobbers and WTCConspiracy were deleted.
Planehuggers was spared, but they changed that one to a "moderator only" group and made "the_webfairy@...", the hacked account, the moderator.
I am looking at this account now, and saw your mail. This email account has been nothing but a spam collector for ages. My imposter rerouted all my group mails to this account, even groups like Catapult where I no longer receive messages.
I hope you can figure out how to complain to yahoo, and get the IP address of

And someone got a screen of the vandalized Yahoo group before it went down the memoryhole:

Hmmm. Wild ass guess: someone who knew Grable and hates Craig Lazo? Or maybe Grable did it to herself. It wouldn't be the first time group members or friends staged attacks for sympathy.

So much for the conspiracy "think tank". From this point Grable seems to have retired, quietly managing Craig Lazo's killtown webpages, even as he trashes her online. Bitch should be charging Lazo extra for that service.

National Labor Federation

The Truth about Natlfed:

The truth about NATLFED

Welcome to the Internet site with the whole story about the political cult the National Labor Federation, aka the Provisional Communist Party, aka the Formation.

Hot news after its NYC headquarters was raided by police in November 1996, NATLFED actually has been active for 27 years in dozens of small fronts across the country. NATLFED fronts, using innocent names like "Western Service Workers Association," "Eastern Farm Workers Association," "Coalition of Concerned Medical Professionals," and "Women's Press Collective," lure liberal volunteers from communities and colleges into brainwashed separation from their families, jobs, and friends.

In addition to reading published articles and locating the fronts near you, you are welcome to leave a public or private testimonial on our Feedback page about your NATLFED experience.

FRONTS:

<http://users.rcn.com/xnatlfed/entindex.html>

(As of 2002)

NATLFED operates not openly, but through fronts. It often publicly calls the fronts "mutual benefit associations," and privately calls them "entities."

Most entities are small, and some may be defunct at this time.

There are two national headquarters: NOC in Brooklyn, New York; and COSHAAD in San Francisco, California.

Locations of Headquarters and Entities

Addresses and phone numbers are compiled from several sources, some as much as ten years old. Some entities may now be defunct. Corrections are welcome.

All entities are subservient to national NATLFED, which in turn is run by the Provisional Communist Party. There are two national headquarters.

NOC: East Coast headquarters

A "secret safe house" in Brooklyn, NY. Home of founding cult leader Gino Perente (till his 1995 death) and of 30 to 40 NATLFED members living communally. Raided by the FBI and the New York City Police Department in 1984, and by the New York City Police Department in 1996. Called NOC (for National Office Central, pronounced "knock") by members. See also West Coast Headquarters.

Daily operations for the following entities appear to take place mostly at NOC: Commission on Voluntary Service and Action, Foundation for Alternative Resources, National Coalition of Concerned Legal Professionals, and National Equal Justice Association.

NOC's address is:

Wikipedia's List of Front Groups:

List of NATLFED entities

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Jump to: navigation, search

According to a public statement issued by the National Labor Federation in the late 1970s,

"The National Labor Federation (NATLFED) is an organization of small worker associations encompassing over 20 organizing drives in various parts of the United States. Organizing drives exist in Oakland, Sacramento, Santa Cruz, Orange County, San Diego and Redding, California under the auspices of the Western Service Workers Association, on Long Island and in Binghamton and Wayne County, New York under the auspices of the Eastern Farm Workers Association, in New Brunswick, Princeton, Atlantic City, New Jersey; Rochester, Albany, Buffalo, New York; Baltimore, Maryland; Philadelphia under the auspices of the Eastern Service Workers Association, Medford and Eugene, Oregon under the Northwest Seasonal Workers Association, in Massachusetts, under the Western Massachusetts Labor Alliance and in many other areas. They are dedicated to the organization of the approximately 47 million unrecognized workers in the United States so far excluded from any of the somewhat dubious benefits of the National Labor Relations Act."<sup>[1]</sup>

The organizations listed below have been reported as the associations (called entities) which comprise NATLFED. The individual organizations have usually been open about their participation in the network.<sup>[2][3]</sup>

Almost all of the NATLFED entities were listed in the publication Invest Yourself between 1984 and the mid-1990s:

"The descriptions of them--there are 38 in all--read very similarly; they are said to be "mutual benefits associations," providing the necessities of life to "the lowest paid strata" of unorganized workers, while applying a strategy of "systemic organizing" to produce "permanent change" in their conditions. They all say as well that volunteers need no experience; they will be trained by professional organizers."<sup>[4]</sup>

NATLFED entities conduct door-to-door canvassing and operate assistance programs for the poor<sup>[3]</sup>
